all been political or physically-oriented conflicts in the past. This is a new global war, the war for dominance that cannot be denied. Your tribe, or clan, or city, or whatever you call your tribe or clan or city, must win this war, or you will lose this game. Think on that for a moment, if you are at all rational and logical. If you choose to ignore this reality, and continue to continue with the status quo of peace and prosperity (or what the elites call prosperity), then you can no longer claim that you are a free people. You are a conquered people, and you are their slaves. When the hour comes, the war for dominion will be upon us all, and it will be time for reason to give way to irrationality, the possibility of a global war, or the decay of our culture, and our civilizations. You are not powerless, but because of the powers and authorities you have chosen to serve, you are not as powerful as you need to be either. That is the answer. You know it. The elites know it. While I am not forcing anyone to read this, I am merely letting you know, it is out there for you to consider. You can choose to continue to be blind-sided by the news and continue to not even try to understand the basic causes of the world's financial crisis. I do not condemn you for this. You can choose to do so, or not. To those who have followed the news in the last few days, and understand what I am talking about, I thank you for your patience and your understanding, and your pursuit of truth. If you are interested in the absolute truth about the reality of the world's monetary system, and its relationship to war and peace, you are in the right place. You must, must, MUST awaken to the truth. You can decide when that is. For now, I have answered your questions, and if you wish, you can read the entire section of the answer that pertains to you, and try to learn. If you are not interested in all that, or not open-minded to at least consider the truth (as I have presented it to you), then you are simply wasting your time, you can simply go about your day, without any disturbance, as I am expressing only truth. My task is simply to present the information, and if you choose to ignore this

Well, this was supposed to happen. Should this be illegal? When a big US auto-maker is approached by union activists and asked to create just a few jobs in America, it's always a good time to ask, "What's this going to cost?" In the case of Ford's operation of a Mexican plant, the union greens are asking for a $6,000 one-time salary for a 30-week work year plus benefits. Don't ask what it's going to cost to replace the jobs these dregs would have held. On these pages, we're always saying that unions are a very real threat. But no one who has worked with union activists, or read about their activities, could for a moment think that a group that wants to represent a single union's wage-and-benefit demands in a single plant could be said to represent the interests of workers in general. But there are people in the real world who are looking at this, and who aren't stupid enough to fall for the union's pitch. So, it's time to start working on the destruction of the union movement. How do we do that? Let's start with the easy part, which is the destruction of the union movement's signature issue of "minority rights". Union activists rarely talk about the union movement's first real achievement, which was to secure workers the right to a basic wage and other benefits. But it wasn't after winning that right that the union movement decided it needed to push a lot of other issues. It was after the progressive 1910s saw the gains of the progressive 1880s collapse, with the beginning of the Great Depression and the beginning of the protectionism of American business, that the union movement started pushing the slogans
