Quality, Sound, Price, Software Audio.Analysis of structured thromboplastins and initiation of coagulation by human seminal plasma. Despite all the research devoted to understanding the nature of coagulant activity in semen, a definitive structure for a component yet to be characterized has not been identified. Using thromboplastin extracted from animal sources as an assay reagent, the present study compares this nature of human seminal plasma coagulant with that of mammalian and avian tissue thromboplastins. Human seminal plasma coagulant demonstrated neither soluble nor specific protein antigens detected by immunologic assays. Moreover, unlike mammalian and avian thromboplastins, it did not activate protein C by cleaving a single arginine and factor Va by a single cleavage of a single Arg-Gly bond, thereby providing evidence that, compared to other thromboplastins, human seminal plasma-dependent coagulation may be initiated by a different mechanism.The interference at an auxiliary FM frequency in a broadcast TV band is sometimes the cause of annoying program content. The auxiliary FM frequency is shown on an ordinary radio receiver and sometimes on a television set or radio receiver integrated within a television set. When this happens,
