(0,-3); At Eureka 70, the greatest number of centers" displayed there was something like this. I can't remember anything else, though I don't doubt it was somewhere in the vicinity, but the experience sticks in my memory. (SM, 26[23]). gujarati to english barakhadi Imagining that the problem stems from perceived strangeness rather than from a lack of quantity of experience, I asked him to give me a number of experiences he considered significant. As soon as I heard this number (40), I said, "So 40 is about your total number of significant experiences." I received the answer: "Well, they come in bunches. Five, ten, twenty: I get all that. Gujarati To English Barakhadi 10 But it was a traumatic and disappointing time, partly because I was so ill, that I think I had a back injury or that my back was giving out. It made it almost impossible for me to do something so simple as get up and go to the bathroom. I just went from one day to another, getting weaker and weaker. There was no predicting what was going to happen from day to day. (SM, 31[23]). Gujarati To English Barakhadi It has not been reported that problems with memory are associated with M.T.S.D. but the people who have the most problems with it and those who are likely to progress to M.T.S.D. are not experiencing more than normal occurrences of memory lapses or forgetting. (Wood, 1988). gujarati to english barakhadi A person who has experienced hallucinations might spontaneously discover his experience with the use of smell or taste senses, touch sense or other senses. As a consequence, psychological induction is very different from sensory induction. In sensory induction, a person's consciousness may
